

Award in Fire Safety Principles

British Safety Council is one of the leading U.K Government regulated awarding organisation formed in 1957. The Level 2 Award in Fire Safety Principles is suitable for any people in the workplace and most appropriate for those with designated responsibility to protect the workforce in the event of fire e.g. Fire Warden.

Who can take this course?

- Fire warden
- Fire watcher
- Safety/HSE Officer
- Suitable for all employees in any organisation as a part of induction programme

Course Syllabus:

- Understand the hazards and risks associated with fire in the workplace
- Learn how fire risk is controlled in the workplace
- The principles and practice of fire safety management at work
- The role of the nominated fire warden

Course Benefits:

- Comply with the legal requirements
- Effective supervision to spot the hazards related to fire
- Understand the responsibilities in the event of fire
- Able to behave logically during fire

Assessment: 30 Multi Choice questions examination

Course Duration: 1 day

Award in principles of Risk Assessment

British Safety Council formed in 1957 offers a wide range of vocational qualification for diverse range of educational and employment backgrounds. The Level 2 Award in Principles of Risk Assessment aims to provide HSE people & supervisors with fundamental knowledge and understanding of the risk assessment process using its five steps to risk assessment.

Who can take this course?

- Safety Officer
- Safety Engineer
- Safety Advisor
- Safety Manager

Course Syllabus:

- Understand why risk assessments are necessary for maintaining and improving standards of health and safety at work
- The main causes of work related fatalities, injuries and ill health
- Understand the principles of risk assessment
- A simple process for undertaking a risk assessment

Course Benefits:

- Comply with the legal requirements
- Carry out unaided risk assessment and mitigate the risk
- Implement monitoring procedures and review process
- Protect the worker force and business reputation

Assessment: 30 Multi Choice questions examination

Course Duration: 1 day

Course Fee & Calendar:

E-mail: info@nistinstitute.com | www.nistinstitute.com | Contact NIST @ 1800 103 2442