

Award in Principles of Fire Safety

This course covers range of topics to provide solid grounding in the key principles of fire safety practices and procedures. Professionals who are having designated responsibility for workplace fire safety could opt for this course to gain enhanced knowledge in fire safety practices.

Course Benefits

- Educates on how to approach a fire, and what can be done to extinguish fire
- Gives good knowledge on the use of fire-fighting equipment
- Enhances awareness of fire prevention measures
- Helps in adhering to legislative requirements
- Emphasizes the role of a fire warden in the event of fire

Course Syllabus

- Hazards and risks associated with fire in the workplace
- Fire risk control
- Principles and practices of fire safety management at work
- Role of a nominated fire warden

Who can take this course?

- Nominated fire wardens
- Safety professionals
- Personnel working in the area where there is a higher risk of fire
- Freshers
- Suitable for new employees as part of an induction programme

Career Opportunities

- Fire warden
- Fire watcher
- Entry-level jobs in health and safety domain

Prerequisites

None

Training Methodology

Classroom

Duration

1-day

Assessment

30 multiple choice questions

Award in Risk Assessment

The aim of this course is to equip learners with the relevant knowledge and practical skills to accurately complete a risk assessment in their own workplace. In addition, this course facilitates learners in making effective qualitative decisions towards health and safety.

Course Benefits

- Provides competence to carry out risk assessment effectively
- Prevents ill health and injuries in the workplace
- Helps to comply with workplace safety regulations
- Creates and maintains a healthier work environment
- Avoids prosecution, litigation, absence costs and loss of reputation

Course Syllabus

- Role of risk assessment in accident and ill-health prevention
- Legal requirements for risk assessment
- Key terms associated with risk assessment
- Process for undertaking a risk assessment
- Hierarchy of control
- Risk assessment review and record keeping

Who can take this course?

Anyone who has to carry out risk assessments in the workplace or needs to understand the principles of risk assessment process

Career Opportunities

- Entry-level safety jobs in
- Oil & gas shut-down maintenance activities and
- Construction sites especially in Gulf countries

Prerequisites

None

Training Methodology

Classroom

Duration

1-day

Assessment

30 multiple choice questions

